BRONZES.

Part of same Collection consigned from Syria; all guaranteed as described—all bronze.

649 Statuette of some female god, with her arms folded on her breast, her garments knotted about her waist. Dark green patina, partly cleaned off. Very fine and ex. rare. 5 in 650 Cherub bearing a cup; he is apparently suspended in the air, probably Ganymede; one foot gone. Still very fine and rare. 3¼-in.

651 Figure of a Gladiator; over one arm is thrown the skin of some animal (his only shield), and in the other hand he has a knife (which is absent), on the feet are spikes, it having been used as the handle for the cover of one of the large bronze urns. Fine, rare. 5 in.

652 Small Statuette of Osiris. Very good. 3 in.

653 Portion of the trappings of a chariot, representing a serpent's crest, on the apex of which is standing, all four feet together, some animal, probably a griffon. Very good; rare. Curved; brown patina. 4 in.

654 —— Another. Smaller and more perfect. Without the animal on top. Black and green patina. Rare. 4 in.

655 Curious statuette of a leopard. Very crude in form. Rare. Well patinated. 3½ in.

656 Still more curious animal, standing much higher on its fore than its hind feet on base, its tail curving down and joining its legs forms a sort of handle. Very rare. 2 in.

657 Top-boot; it looks like a boot, but is probably a leg and foot. Very rare, 2 in.
